

On-the-job training assistance

NOW AVAILABLE

Project RENEW offers vouchers up to $5,000 for employers.

Goal of Project RENEW

To match employers who have current full-time job openings with unemployed workers who do not have the necessary skill sets for the position. The $5,000 voucher (up to 50 percent of the trainee's wages) is available to help offset the employer's expense of on-the-job training until June 30, 2011. Small businesses may be eligible for a reimbursement greater than 50 percent through June 30, 2011. Employers may also be eligible for tax credit assistance.

Project RENEW services are available for a training period up to six months or 1040 hours. The starting hourly wage must meet or exceed $10.00.

Effective through June 30, 2011.
